

“Function 8 has been a strong business partner for Ace Global Distribution (AGD), Shanghai – a subsidiary of Ace Hardware Corporation. We have worked with them on many fronts, from our office networking needs to systems development on our order processing catalogue.

“The company has provided valuable input into defining the functionality of the systems and has been able to deliver the systems on time and on budget – they understand our business IT needs and works closely with us to find a solution.

“Function 8 is a strategic business partner.” – Rob Collins, Ace Hardware Corporation.
